FRESH ACCESS BUCKS

EXPANDING ACCESS TO FRUITS & VEGETABLES

SNAP SUPPORT

FAB helps farmers and markets navigate SNAP authorization and obtain EBT equipment. More farm-direct outlets accepting SNAP/EBT means more access to fresh fruits and vegetables for SNAP customers.

FAB Impact:

- SNAP technology support for 150 outlet
- 55 NEW outlets with resources to accept SNAP

RETAIL PILOT PROGRAM

FAB's 3-year retail pilot program enables small, independent and regional retail outlets to offer Fresh Access Bucks on fresh produce to SNAP recipients in communities that struggle with food access. The goal of this pilot is to create a replicable incentive model and expand it statewide.

FAB Impact:

- 15 participating retailers
- $46,690 in fresh produce purchases

ADAPTING FOOD ACCESS

With the COVID-19 pandemic driving more need, FAB and its network partners adapted in remarkable ways to address challenges, maintain food access for vulnerable populations and provide income for Florida farmers.

FAB INITIATIVES

- New hire: Outreach Coordinator
- Unlimited SNAP Match campaign
- Interactive market map with up-to-date outlet status
- COVID-19 resources webpage for Florida farmers and markets
- Strong support for partners: webinars and virtual networking sessions
- Statewide social media campaign and direct marketing/advertising support for FAB outlets

NEW MARKET MODELS

- Online Orders
- Curbside Pickup
- Drive Thru Farmers Markets
- Home Delivery
- Contactless CSA Boxes

PERKS OF ACCEPTING SNAP & FAB

- Increases Overall Sales and Average Spend
- Opens New Avenues for Promotion
- Generates Positive Media Exposure
